

Fresh finds

Embrace bold hues, tactile elements and artisanal pieces to create conversation starters in the home.

Find more residential products:
architectureau.com/products

01 Plume Light by Skeehan for Rakumba
The Plume collection represents the relationship between light and colour while celebrating designer Tom Skeehan's love of material experimentation. The design explores the distortion of sheet aluminium, with vibrant hues expertly applied by the renowned Fink and Co anodising team. Photograph: Pew Pew. rakumba.com.au

04 Primula side table from Paola Lenti
Italian designer Nicolò Morales finds contemporary expression for traditional clay-working techniques in the design of the Primula side table for Paola Lenti. Its base features handcrafted, hand-decorated sea-creature-like majolica elements supporting a round transparent glass fusion surface. dedece.com

02 Single Tier Ruffle Table from Criteria
Inspired by collars, drapes and linen valances, the Ruffle Series by Bari Ziperstein emphasises undulating forms and crisp edges. The handcrafted ceramic table is available in a range of brushed-on glazes, from clear citrus yellow and matt neutrals to earthy mottled blue and glossy monochrome tones. criteriacollection.com.au

05 Raking linen rug by Darren Palmer x Unitex
The Raking rug evokes the serene look of a zen sand garden, with its beige hues, subtle arches and repetition that mimic lines drawn in sand. The 7 mm pile offers gentle comfort underfoot, ideal for bringing softness to timber or concrete flooring. Available in various sizes for living spaces or as a runner for hallways. unitexint.com

03 Teo lamp from Salvatori
The Teo lamp features a robust stone disk base softened by a delicate, conical rice paper shade, which creates a diffused glow. The lamp is charged via a USB cable and can be fully customised by swapping out the paper shade for unique designs including children's drawings and newspaper clippings. salvatoriofficial.com